

Trombetta

FAMILY WINES

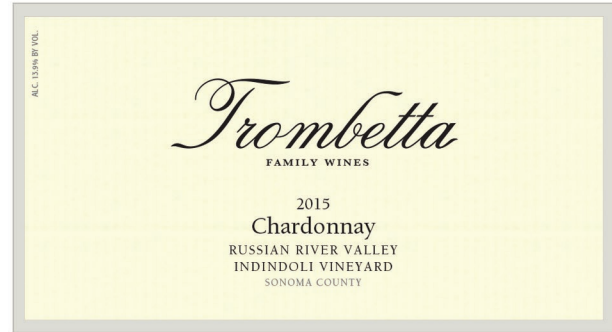

Limited production wines by mother-and-daughter duo Rickey Trombetta Stancliff and Erica Stancliff. We select clones of Pinot Noir and Chardonnay that exemplify the rich minerality, soils and cool weather of the Sonoma Coast, resulting in a beautifully balanced wine, enhancing every meal. Each and every bottle has been hand harvested and hand produced.

2015 Chardonnay, Indindoli

RUSSIAN RIVER
185 cases

Aromas of lemon, honeysuckle and green apple. Flavors of lemon curd, lush cream, and bright acid with a finessed finish.

Alcohol 14.2%

Production Notes

VINEYARD PROFILE

Vineyard: Indindoli

Clones: Wente & Robert Young

Vineyard age: Planted from 2002 to 2005

Site: Located in the heart of Russian River Valley off of Vinehill School Road. North-western exposure.

Soils: Sandy Loam

Yield: 2 tons/acre

HARVEST

Harvest Dates: September 8, 2015

Harvest Brix: 24.8

Growing Season: 2015 delivered moderate weather conditions creating an ideal growing season. Cool mornings, sun-filled days and foggy evenings throughout most of August allowed grapes to ripen at an optimal pace. Flavors at harvest were exceptional, while maintaining acidity.

WINEMAKING

Winemaker: Erica Stancliff

Night hand-harvested grapes

Immediately pressed whole cluster, overnight tank settled

Fermented in barrel with native yeast

Native malolactic fermentation in barrels

Aged 8 months on lees in French oak barrels, stirred once a week (20% new, 80% neutral)

Unfined and unfiltered.